RE: Selection of OECOSL-01-15: Solicitation for Child Care Resource and Referral (CCR&R) Services

On behalf of the State of Indiana, I am pleased to announce that 9 agencies have been selected to begin sub-recipient grant negotiations to provide Child Care Resource and Referral (CCR&R) Services for the Office of Early Childhood and Out of School Learning (OECOSL), in the service delivery areas (SDA) indicated below:

- SDA 1 – Southlake/Tri-City Management Corp. dba Geminus Corp.
- SDA 3 – Early Childhood Alliance
- SDA 4 – Right Steps Child Development Centers dba Tippecanoe County Child Care, Inc.
- SDA 5 – Bona Vista Programs Inc.
- SDA 6 – Chances and Services for Youth, Inc.
- SDA 7 – Early Learning Indiana
- SDA 8 – Huffer Child Care Resource and Referral
- SDA 9 – 4C of Southern Indiana, Inc.
- SDA 11 – Southeastern Indiana Economic Opportunity Corporation

A representative(s) from FSSA will be contacting you in the near future to begin the negotiation process. The State of Indiana retains the right to either negotiate with another respondent or cancel this RFF based on your willingness to agree to the terms of the grant.

Please be advised that your proposed agreement with the State of Indiana is not effective until the necessary State signatory authorities approve it. Until the sub-recipient grant agreement is approved and fully executed, any actions you take in reliance of approval are at your own risk. The State denies any liability for any actions that you have taken or may take before the grant is fully executed pursuant to Indiana Code.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me via email at Melanie.Brizzi@fssa.in.gov.
